DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,5,9,10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japan '884.

Japan '884 shows in figure 8 the claimed invention, including a pair of leeboards pivotally attached to the lower end of a fixed keel.

3. Claims 1-7 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Frantl et al.

Frantl et al. discloses lee-boards carrying ballast at the lower ends thereof, independently movable via actuators. The boards are arranged on a short fixed portion.

4. Claims 1,11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by German '107.

German '107 discloses a pair of independently pivoted lee-boards arranged on parallel axes, and mounted on the lower end of a fixed portion.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3617

6. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frankl et al. in view of Marcil.

Frankl et al. fails to disclose arms as claimed.

Marcil discloses a pivotal lee-board having an arm and actuator.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to substitute an arm and actuator as that of Marcil for the actuator of Frankl et al.

Such a combination would have been desirable at the time the invention was made so as to provide a much simpler and less complex means of actuation.
